(2) Agencies that perform administrative work of the Council of Higher Education Institutions Shows basic information about the administrative agencies of the Council of Higher Education Institutions, including their history. Vision/Mission/Authority Administrative structure and personnel structure of the agency.

(2.1) Administrative structure

The UC Secretariat Unit of Stamford International University is responsible for the administration of the council.

Background

The University Council is the highest governing body of the university, responsible for overseeing and managing all university affairs. It sets policies, approves educational development plans, issues regulations, announces directives, maintains educational standards, ensures quality assurance, evaluates the university, approves curricula and degrees, handles personnel administration, manages budget and income, and seeks methods to advance the university.

To ensure efficient and effective work, university management collectively agreed to establish a "University Council Secretariat Unit" as an internal unit responsible for all Council affairs.

Duties of the University Council Secretariat Unit

The University Council Secretariat Unit is tasked with Council affairs, coordinating with university administration, developing regulations, directives, orders, and resolutions of the Council, and ensuring efficient university management according to good governance principles. Its duties include:

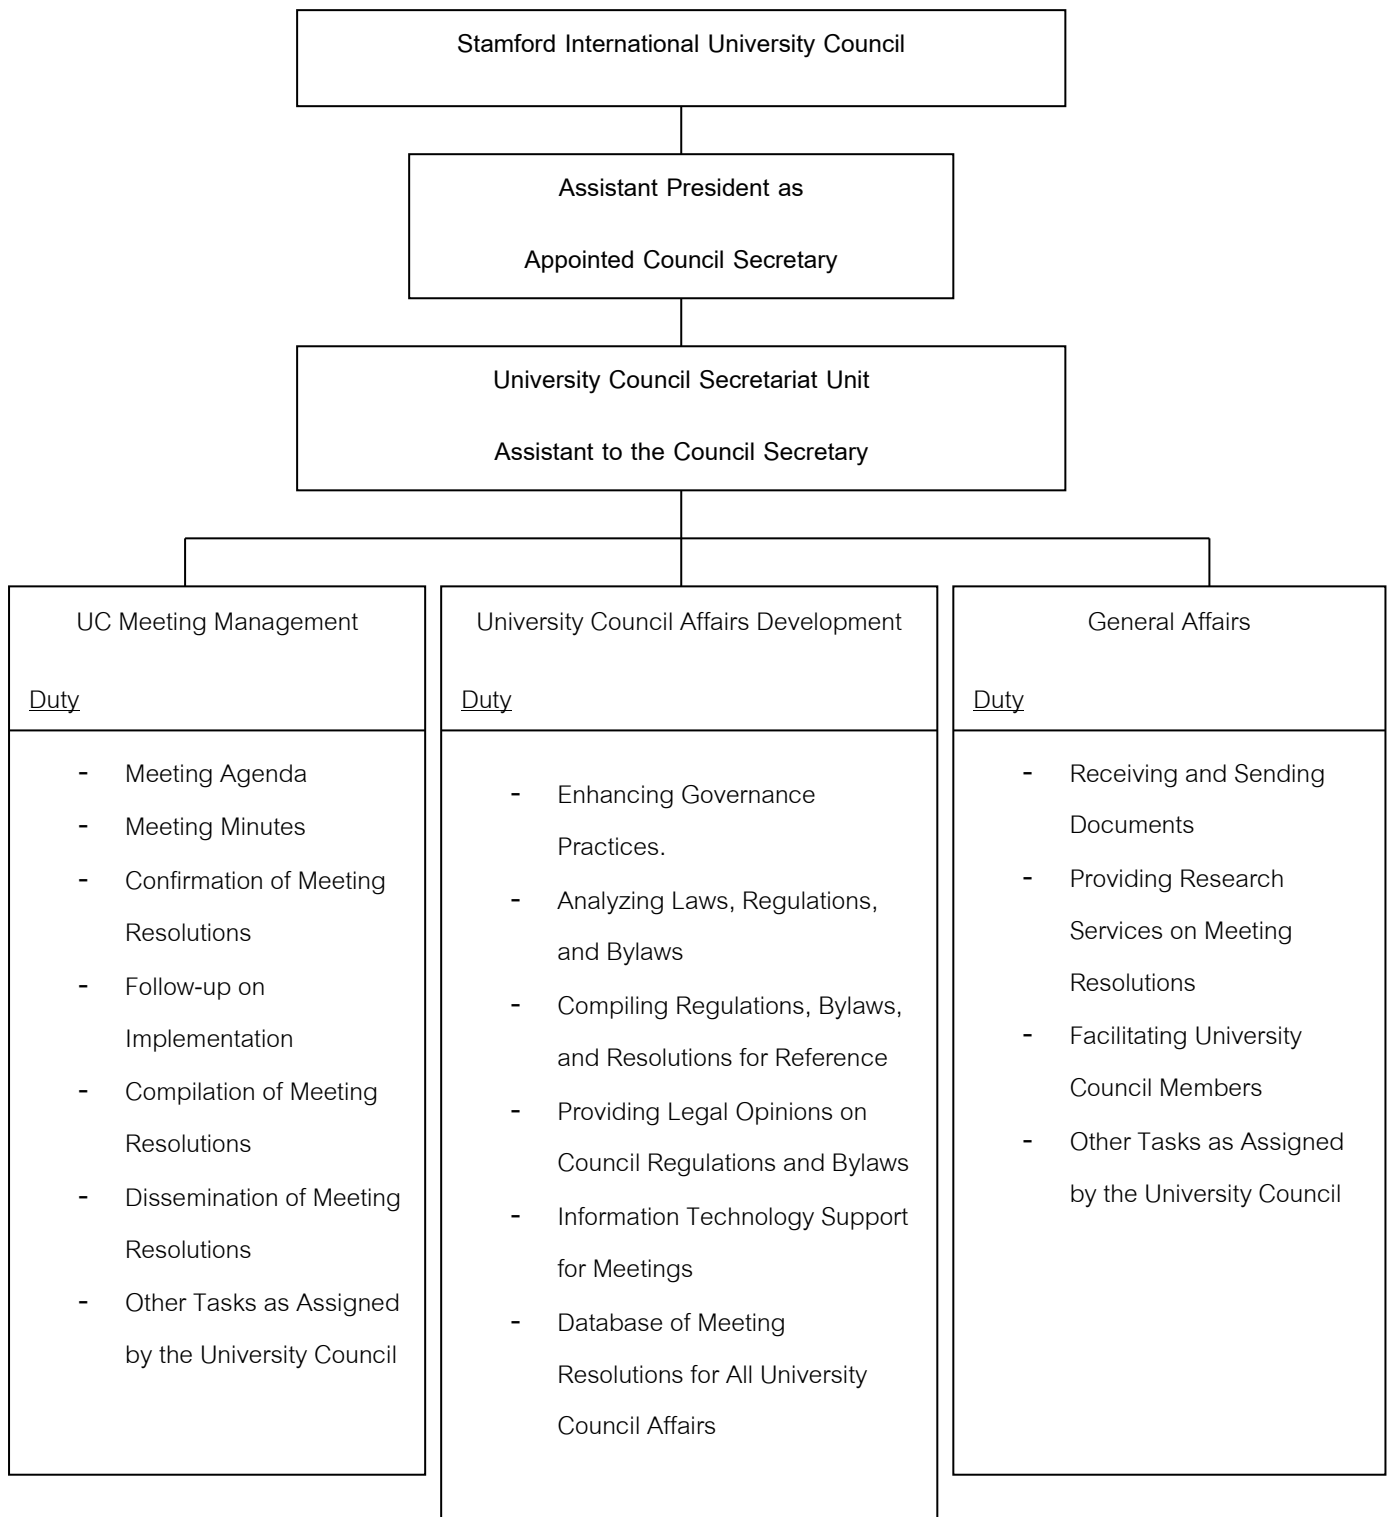

1. Organizing University Council meetings and managing budgets to support the Council's operations.
2. Handling administrative tasks and legal responsibilities of the Council.
3. Coordinating with university personnel, departments, government agencies, and other organizations regarding Council-related matters.
4. Monitoring the implementation of Council resolutions by the university.
5. Compiling and analyzing regulations and Council resolutions for operational use.
6. Coordinating and organizing meetings for the Academic Council and other committees established by the Council.
7. Disseminating information about the Council's activities to university personnel.
8. Developing an information system to support Council meetings, including document storage, retrieval, referencing, and dissemination.
9. Performing other duties as mandated by laws, regulations, and Council resolutions, or as assigned by the Council.

Workload of the University Council Secretariat Unit

The University Council Secretariat Unit handles administrative and managerial tasks, serving as the central unit for presenting issues from various departments to the Council according to laws and regulations. It includes:

1. Screening all matters to be presented to the Council, ensuring compliance with regulations, and providing legal and procedural advice for accurate Council decisions.
2. Studying and analyzing information to propose opinions on draft regulations, bylaws, and legal issues related to Council activities.
3. Compiling and analyzing Council resolutions and tracking their implementation by the university, reporting progress to the Council as scheduled.
4. Managing Council meetings, including:
 - Setting meeting agendas according to university regulations and bringing forward issues vetted by relevant committees.
 - Inviting Council members, assisting them with travel arrangements, providing necessary information, and ensuring the meeting venue is prepared.
 - Preparing meeting reports for Council approval.
 - Confirming Council resolutions with relevant parties and departments.
 - Following up on subsequent tasks, such as submitting orders or regulations for the Council President's signature.
5. Verifying Council-approved orders, announcements, regulations, and bylaws for the Council President's signature and informing relevant departments for implementation.
6. Compiling, analyzing, storing, and providing database services for Council resolutions, and disseminating information to university personnel, government agencies, and the public.
7. Updating and maintaining an up-to-date database of important Council regulations and resolutions for reference.
8. Utilizing modern information technology in Council meetings and operations to minimize paper use.
9. Providing meeting room services and other necessary facilities for Council members and committees.
